Newsletter - 10th November 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week we have seen the children focus on Remembrance Day. On Monday, the children attended an assembly to understand the significance of this day. Then, all children across the school made a poppy which will be displayed in the Stratford Centre this weekend, hanging from the large chandelier in the middle of the centre.

On Wednesday, it was really good to see so many families at our annual 'Food Tasting' event. I'm sure this has helped to inform and reassure parents/carers that your children are offered good quality meals at lunchtime! Again thank you for your support and thanks to Miss Cooke and Zena (School Cook) for organising this event.

Examples of issues you may wish to discuss include: your child's emotional well-being, challenging behaviours, learning progress, your relationship with your child or any of your own worries. The sessions aim to be supportive, confidential and informal. Each session is 40 minutes.
